Application Pack

2023

About

The Inclusion Impact Fund (IIF) aims to connect community/business projects that reduce barriers for people with disability with funding to create greater impact across the sector and support CPL Group to realise its vision of a world where all people live an inclusive, passionate and fulfilling life.

The funding key focus areas that directly impact unmet needs of people with disability are:

- Transport, Infrastructure and Accessibility
- Community Education and Awareness
- Employment and Economic Participation
- Inclusion in Community Life (recreation, arts, community activity, communication, medical/health and digital exclusion)

Funding is open to individuals/sole traders, partnerships, corporates, and NGO's.

For the current round, funding of up to $20,000 per grant is available.

If your application is successful, you will enter a funding agreement prior to payment of the grant.

The funding term is 12 months. You will be required to acquit the funding with a brief report detailing how the funding was spent and the impact your project has created in the community.

PLEASE NOTE:

CPL will accept applications via phone, video, or transcription (derived from a meeting, either face to face or video) from individuals unable to complete the application form. Project readiness as outlined in the application form attachments will still need to be provided.

Where possible applicants are required to attend a panel discussion in relation to their application.
